

PERSONALS.

Wm. Crutcher of Winnemucca is at the Palace.

L. A. Hall, Wells-Fargo's route agent, was in town this morning.

Louis Busson, a patient of the Asylum, died last Sunday evening.

Mrs. Bladell's pleasant countenance was seen on our streets to-day.

Sam Reed of Paradise came in last night, going to Carson to-day.

G. W. Meylert, the stage man, came in last night on a business trip.

J. Rubin and wife of San Francisco are stopping at the Golden Eagle.

Joseph Brotherton is killing time at Boca.

Jos. Spencer, having been on a trip to Humboldt Bay, returned on the morning train.

Jon. Judge of Modoc put in a day in Reno and left with his freight team for home to-day.

J. A. Blossom, a mining man of Battle Mountain, with his family, is at the Depot Hotel.

H. D. King, the messenger, and his wife yesterday left by Meylert's stage for Mohawk valley.

Grand Marshal Lindsay has appointed Henry Berry and J. F. Alexander as his aids to-morrow.

B. H. Hazen, having spent several months hereabouts, yesterday took the back track for Michigan.

J. N. Fagg of Sierra Valley, an intimate friend of Wm. R. Chamberlain, is stopping at the Depot.

James Spearson of Wadsworth and Martin Sanders of Candelaria are registered at the Palace hotel.

The digestive organs weakened and worn out by using cathartic medicines, restored by using Brown's Iron Bitters.

Wm. Shartell and family of Surprise Valley came in last evening, accompanied by Miss Cordia Green.

J. C. Denison of Surprise Valley, a brother of Judge Denison of Sacramento, left Reno for his home to-day.

R. R. Parkinson of the Carson Tribune has gone on a trip to San Francisco and Washington Territory.

Jack O'Brien drove about 200 fine lambs through town at an early hour this morning, looking Virginian.

Brooks, the teamster of Taylorville, put in an appearance and took on freight for his town yesterday afternoon.

Wilson T. Smith, Government land agent, came in from the north on last night's stage and went on to San Francisco.

Robert Branton arrived at Salt Lake with his thoroughbred sheep without loss, and is now well on his way to Colorado.

J. A. Hamlin, a Lake City merchant, has been on a visit to his brother at Sierra Valley, and will return home to-morrow.

R. B. Skeleton, the wire fence man, dropped in on the train from Carson last night, reporting the fence business a success there.

Dennis Chatman of Taylorville, a former stage proprietor from Reno to Greenville, came in Sunday for a load of freight for Taylorvillians.

Mrs. H. L. Ticknor, of Carson, departed for San Francisco last night. The rest of the family leave next week to locate there permanently.

C. W. Perry, in the employ of Gallatin & Folsom, left yesterday for a six weeks' trip canvassing for the firm through the country north of Reno.

J. N. Barstow expects to leave Reno next Thursday, bound for Oregon and Washington Territory, in company with Jno. P. Meder of Carson.

M. C. Fisher of Surprise Valley came in yesterday, to meet his family, who arrived here last evening from Missouri. He left for Surprise to-day.

Joseph Jones, ex-Sheriff of Washoe county, now a merchant of Eagle Creek, Surprise Valley, returned home this morning after a few days stay in Reno.

Chas. Norris, an experienced man at lumbering, went to Truckee to-day. It is safe to bet that he can handle a logging team equal to the best man in the woods.

Grand Chancellor R. B. Mitchell came down from Virginia last night en route for Elko to institute a lodge of Knights of Pythias, previous to which he will attend court at Winnemucca.

A telegram was received this morning from Rev. Wm. Lucas of Ohio, accepting the rectorship of Trinity Church. The reverend gentleman will be cordially received by many Reno friends.

C. P. Mason, who resigned from the Virginia & Truckee railroad, has joined with Messrs. Parke & Lacy of San Francisco in the mining machinery and railroad supply business at Salt Lake.

"Old Sam" Wagner, the pioneer boot-black of the Comstock, is dead. The good old man was 82 years old, and had many friends. Though his skin was black he had a larger heart than most white men.

Senator J. Minor Taylor arrived from the East last night, having been to Salt Lake to meet his mother. He was accompanied by Capt. Friele and wife. The Captain goes to San Francisco to-night to take charge of the steamship City of Tokyo.

REV. W. R. JENVEY.

Reno Loses an Earnest Clergyman and an Energetic Citizen.

Rev. W. R. Jenvey leaves Reno for Hoboken, N. J., to-morrow morning, and Reno loses one of her very best citizens. Mr. Jenvey came here from Virginia in 1878, and has been very active in promoting the interests of the town. He will be greatly missed by this people, and it will be hard to find one to fill his place. His work has endeared him to this community and will not go unrewarded.

When he took charge of this parish it was not in a very prosperous condition, but he went to work and soon improved things. The church was only finished on the exterior. The interior was unsightly; the rafters and joist were exposed; the floors were bare and the church looked more like a barn than a place of worship. Mr. Jenvey immediately went to work to complete the structure. He ceiling it throughout, carpeted the floors, finished the chancel, changed the entrances from the front to the tower, etc. This cost $1500. The rectory was repainted, papered and made comfortable at a cost of $550. It was through his energies that Reno has one of the coziest little churches in the State.

His work within the fold has been faithful and beneficial. Since he came here 500 services have been held; 140 persons have been baptized; 61 confirmed; 35 couples have been married; and he has officiated at 67 burials. The Sunday school has flourished and is to-day one of the best schools on the coast. The teachers and scholars number 220. Mr. Jenvey has accomplished all this and devoted half his time to teaching in Bishop Whitaker's School for Girls besides. He was one of the bravest of our citizens at the time of the last big fire. Being selected as chairman of the relief committee he assisted very materially in alleviating the distress of those who had lost their all in the flames. He acted in a similar capacity in Virginia at the time of the fire there.

Last year the Republicans gave him the nomination of Superintendent of Public Instruction and the people of this county elected him by a majority of 256.

The people of Hoboken will find Mr. Jenvey a very accomplished gentleman, a hard worker and a bright, conscientious clergyman.

Mrs. Jenvey and their little son Arthur will go east in September.

The Verdi School.

Report of the Verdi school for the month ending May 25th: Whole number of days attendance, 487; whole number of days absence, 18;

whole number of boys enrolled, 13;

whole number of girls enrolled, 13;

total, 26; percentage of attendance, 96. Roll of honor—Jessie Ford,

Josephine Bonin, Amy Seymour,

Lizzie Lenahan, Ellen Gordon,

Carrie Bates, Georgia Foulks,

Charlie Counter, William Counter,

Lester Merrill, Albert Berleau,

Marion Boire, Jimmie Henry, Patrick Mitchell, Bertie Walton.

ADDIE PARK, Teacher.

Attention, Knights.

Members of Amity Lodge, No. 8, K. of P., and adjoining brothers, are requested to meet at the Pavilion to-night (Tuesday) at 8 o'clock, sharp, for drill; swords and belts.

Members of Amity Lodge, No. 8, K. of P., are requested to meet promptly at 10 o'clock A. M., Wednesday, May 30th, 1933, at their Castle Hall in full dress uniform for parade, "Black gloves." By order of J. F. AITKEN, G. C.

W. L. BECHTEL, K. of R. & S.

Soldiers, Attention.

To the Officers and Members of Reno Guard:—You are hereby ordered to be at the Company's Armory on Decoration Day, May 30th, in uniform, at 9:30 A. M., sharp.

Veterans of the Grand Army are cordially invited to join the Guards in the parade, and will be furnished with uniforms at the armory.

T. F. LAYCOCK, First Lieutenant.

E. C. MCCLELLAN, Orderly Sergeant.

MEMORIAL DAY.

It will be properly observed by the People of Reno.

To-morrow most of the business places in town will be closed between 10 and 2 o'clock, to enable all to join in the ceremony of decorating the graves of our soldiers. The programme of Grand Marshal Lindsay, in another column, will give full information.

Reno Mechanics in Demand.

A. F. Borden was some weeks ago called to Truckee to do mason work and has his hands full. Frank can't be beat with the trowel and the Truckee people know it. Boys learn a trade; be good and you will be happy.

Enterprising Men.

Meylert & Dakin of Janesville have let to Mr. Yanner, a saw-mill man there, a contract to construct a wagon-road over the Summit to Beckwith, thereby opening up a market for Honey lake produce in the Plumas mining region.

Nevada Demands.

All those having bills against the State are requested to file them in the Secretary of State's office on or before the 5th inst.

WADSWORTH NOTES.

What is Going on at the Round-House Village.

The Engineers' Hall took fire last Thursday night, and but for timely discovery all the railroad buildings and platform, with the Carey Hotel, would have been consumed. A few minutes delay would have put the fire beyond control, as our facilities for extinguishing fires are very poor. This is the third fire within a few weeks, and should arouse our citizens to a sense of their danger, and to greater vigilance.

David Hunter has gone north, and his family will likely go soon, to the resort of their many friends. Mr. Joseph takes Mr. Hunter's place as freight agent. A. Lyman has bought Hunter's residence.

Mrs. J. Whitford and her sister, Mrs. McBean, have gone below on a visit.

Mrs. James Pierson has gone east to renew old friendships. She is now at Cleveland, Ohio.

Mr. Ebbets and family have moved to Sacramento. Mr. Smith takes his place as time-keeper here in the shops.

The Wadsworth band deserves great credit for rapid improvement since its organization. J. M. H.

JOTTINGS.

The warmest day of the year—so far.

Steamboat Springs are seething hot again.

To-morrow—Memorial day—will be a legal holiday.

R. E. Queen has started his soda fountain. Try a glass.

"Is this hot enough for you," is the reasonable monotony just now.

Last night's express was made up of 11 cars, and all were pretty well filled.

A. Lindley & Co. sent a large quantity of supplies to the asylum to-day.

H. Wright has a lot of cabbage and tomato plants for sale. See 50-cent column.

The up-country stages could not take all the passengers who wanted to go this morning.

Ice cream, strawberries and cream and leed lemonade at the reading rooms to-morrow.

The Reno Guard are ordered to be at their armory at 9:30 A. M., to-morrow morning, to take part in Decoration Day services. Read notice.

On a sultry night, if a person bathes his feet in cold water and leaves them exposed upon retiring, he will feel cool and comfortable and sleep soundly.

Cook & Schneider, the photographers, exhibit a frame of pictures at the White House that are a credit to them as artists. They are excellent specimens of the photographic art.

There is a large quantity of agricultural implements, wagons, etc., at the depot warehouse, awaiting shipment to various points. There is a large amount of miscellaneous freight on hand.

For hardware, crockery, tinware of all sorts, stoves, ranges, and everything used in and around a house, call upon Knowles & Bainbridge, who have unequalled facilities for supplying customers.

Housekeepers agree that J. K. Everett is an expert in the grocery business. His goods are always fresh, for his lively business turns his stock over frequently. The best of goods and the lowest of prices make his store popular.

New potatoes have been raised on E. Barney's place, near Brown's station on the V. & T. This is ahead of many favored spots on the other side of the mountains. Washoe is wonderfully prolific. Its strong points are potatoes and plety.

S. Jacobs is closing out his stock of gent's furnishing goods at 75 cents on the dollar of the San Francisco wholesale prices. His stock must be sold inside of 60 days. Now is the chance for a bargain. He has a good stock to select from. Read ad. in another column.

A correspondent says: "I have been married for several weeks and my husband and I cannot decide whether we should retain our old love letters or burn them. What would you advise?" Get some of J. J. Becker's Fredericksburg beer and it will clear your head so that you can come to a conclusion.

The Central Pacific Railroad Company's artesian well at White Plains, Nevada, is down 1,300 feet, with boring going on night and day for water or China. And Geo. Becker's Pacific brewery is going on, too. He has orders from all quarters, and is sending beer away as fast as he can make it. Drop into the Granite and sample the cool beverage.

Henry Villard is accused of having $10,000,000, owning a metropolitan newspaper, and hiring an ex-Secretary of the Interior to edit it. It is said that the land grant of the Northern Pacific is worth $125,000,000. That sum would buy him ever so many suits of clothes at White House. Abrams Bros. have a large stock, and can fit a poor man as well as a millionaire.

Reno is the supply point for a large and thriving section of country. Its outside trade is very great, and the Wine House gets a considerable share of it. When Chelovich & Co. began to sell liquors at wholesale they probably had no idea that their business would ever reach its present proportions; but they have made it a success, and their enterprise is now being rewarded.

KEEPING OLD COWS.

Kill Them When They Have Out-lived Their Usefulness.

It pays to run a machine as long as it can be made to run at a fair profit on the cost of operating it. Using the old machine saves interest on a new investment, and the continued wear on it does not decrease its value, for the waste material in a condemned machine will be the same whether it is wholly or half worn out.

The case is quite different with farm stock, which can be used as food when it begins to diminish in usefulness to its owner. The man who keeps an ox or a cow until it plies with old age is a double loser by doing so. It invariably costs more in care and food to maintain an old animal than a young one. As the vigor of life falls, digestion is less perfect and assimilation slower and more difficult, and the waste is greater. As the decline goes on more and more food is required to produce a given amount of labor, or milk, or meat.

Old animals can seldom be fattened at a profit, even if their flesh was as valuable as that of younger ones, because it requires so much more time, and feed to do it; but their flesh is not equal to that of animals in their prime, so there is a loss both in the quality and the cost of producing. Old cows that have been milked till their life force has been exhausted make very poor and low-priced, as well as expensive beef.

When a cow has reached 12 or 14 years of age, it hardly pays to fatten her, if she could be had for nothing. Some cows of extraordinary quality may be profitably kept as long as they can be, for the sake of either stock or milk, but average cows are better converted into beef before it would be appropriate to call them old.

Change of Base.

J. B. McCullough, an old settler for 18 years, drove down from Virginia Sunday evening, bringing his wife and daughter, who took the east-bound train for a visit to relatives in Ohio. He left yesterday by team on a tour to Humboldt Bay via Red Bluff, where he expects to join Billy McKay, an experienced sheep drover who has already purchased a drove of sheep which they will drive this way.

Mill to Start Up.

A man by the name of Simmons, accompanied by his wife, was a passenger on the stage for Millford to-day, where he goes to start up the old Millford flouring mills again.

An Early Bird.

An early riser picked up a $20 gold piece on Sunday morning at the corner of Commercial Row and Sierra streets, merely remarking that he thought he was born lucky.

New jewelry at Nasby's. Thermometer at 7, 9, 11, 1, 3: 71, 74, 75, 76, 77.
